PARENTS/CARERS RESPONSIBILITIES

We acknowledge that as parents/carers, we are the key educators of our children and have an invaluable role to play in supporting our child's learning and Tarbiyah in partnership with the school. Therefore, I/we will insha'Allah:

- Ensure that the physical, emotional and spiritual wellbeing of my child remains a priority every day
- Ensure that my child attends school regularly, on time, suitably equipped and in the correct school uniform
- Inform the school by 830am if my child is unable to attend that day or is running late - with a valid reason to be given
- Inform the school of any concerns or problems that might affect my child's work or behaviour
- Talk to my child about their experiences in school and encourage them to do their best
- Support the school's policies and guidelines for behaviour, bullying prevention, uniform and healthy eating
- Attend parents' meetings/evenings to discuss school matters and the academic progress of my child
- Help my child to be kind, polite and respectful to others
- Encourage my child to show respect for the school building, its equipment and other people's possessions
- Support the Governing Body in its work
- Support my child in their homework and other opportunities for learning set by the school, such as reading
- Ensure private tutors that I use for my child's education (out-of-school-hours) work closely with the school to ensure a shared approach to my child's academic progress
- Ensure I read all communiqué sent by the school

PUPILS RESPONSIBILITIES

I acknowledge that Allah Ta'ala has given me a unique set of talents and it is my responsibility to use this in a manner pleasing to Him and set a good example to all communities on how this can be done. Therefore I will insha'Allah try to:

- Attend school regularly and arrive on time for all my lessons
- Abide by the school's policies and class rules
- Wear the correct school uniform and ensure that my appearance is smart and clean at all times
- Do my best in every lesson, bringing all the necessary equipment and being prepared to join in and work hard
- Be diligent in working through tasks set for homework
- Take part in extra-curricular learning activities to boost my skills and ability to work independently or with others
- Show consideration for others in what I say and do
- Show respect for other people and their belongings
- Behave in such a way that my school and my family – and most of Allah Ta'ala - will be proud of me
- Perform wudhu and salat as shown by Prophet Muhammad (PBUH)
- Set a good example for other children at Fitrah SIPS
- Take care of all school equipment and play my part in keeping the school environment tidy
- Think for myself and take responsibility for my actions
- Ask my class teacher or another member of staff for help when I need it and to do so in a good manner
- Tell a grown-up when I am happy or upset
